

Howsem Huang

Graphic Designer, Photographer

Contact

Email howsem@cca.edu

Phone 415-640-5135

Website howsem.net

Instagram @howsem

Profile

Howsem Huang is an undergraduate student pursuing BFA degrees in both Graphic Design and Photography in California College of the Arts. Born in Guangzhou, China, Cantonese and Mandarin are his first languages. He is also fluent in English writing, reading and speaking. He is a multidisciplinary artist and designer whose works are associated with cultures and social issues.

Education

BFA Graphic Design 2017-2021

California College of the Arts

BFA Photography 2018-2021

California College of the Arts

Work Experience

Student Assistant 2018.1-Present

DFAS, Digital Fine Art Studio is a professional image printing studio on campus.

- Set up the printers properly, load different materials, and maintain color managements for each printer.
- Give orientation to students, and provide opinions to other peers.

Event Creative Designer 2019.10-2020.3

Creative Citizen in Action is a series of events which explores our responsibilities as a citizen of the world.

- Create posters of each event.
- Corporate as a curator, contribute opinions to events' planning.

Exhibiton

First Year Honor Program 2018

First Year Honor Program is a group show which selects first year students to contribute their pieces to compose an exhibition.

NASAD Exhibition in CCA 2018

Howsem's work from Typography 1 was selected in the NASAD exhibition, National Association of Schools of Art and Design, who evaluates Art Schools.

Skills

Web Design

Layout Design

Book Design

Type Design

Visual Identity

Commercial Photography

Adobe Suite

HTML, CSS, JavaScript

Webflow

Glyphs

Capture One